7 Justices of the Peace in Mysore are appointed by the Governor-General in Council under the authority vested in him by Sec 6 of the Indian Extradition Act, 1903. The Mysore Govt can not Exercise Criminal jurisdiction over European ~~Brtsh~~ British Subjects. Hence the omission of the chapter relating to them trial in our Criminal Procedure Code.

8 These Justices of the Peace have been appointed with jurisdiction over the whole of Mysore and so Every one of them can try the case if the Complaint is lodged before him. The order we issue in these cases is more of the nature of the nature of an instruction in the Executive department as to before which J.P. the accused Shd be placed for trial.

13) It is understood that all the Justices of the Peace hitherto appointed by the Govt of India under the Foreign Jurisdn + Extradition Act, are appointed J.P.'s within the State of Mysore. The Govt of India have not distributed Jurisdn amongst them + so they have all concurrent jurisdiction throughout the State. The Mysore Govt, it seems, cannot curtail the Jurisdiction vested in the J.P.'s by the Govt of India the cannot restricted the Jurisdn which has been vested in the J.P.'s by the Govt of India so it is submitted that no general order can be issued by the Mysore Govt determining the or restricting the jurisdiction of the J.P.s in any manner.

14) The Govt can give it seems general instructions to the Police + the Magistrates that all charge sheets against European British Subjects may should be placed before the nearest Justice of the Peace
